	God is the loving ruler of the world. (Draw crown) He made the world. (Draw world) He made us rulers of the world under him, and to give thanks and honor to Him. (Draw man)	You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honour and power, for you created all things, and by your will they were created and have their being. Revelation chapter 4, verse 11 But is that the way it is now?
	We all reject God as our ruler by running our own lives our own way. (Draw crown, cross it, draw man with small crown) By rebelling against God's way, we damage and fail to rule ourselves, each other, and the world. (Draw world)	There is no-one righteous, not even one there is no-one who understands, no-one who seeks God. All have turned away. Romans chapter 3, verses 10-12 The question is: what will God do about our rebellion against him?
	God won't let us rebel against him forever. (Draw crown) God's punishment for rebellion is death and judgment. (Draw man lying down)	Man is destined to die once, and after that to face judgment. Hebrews chapter 9, verse 27 This is hard to hear. It means that we are all in deep trouble. But it's not the end of the story.
	Because of his love, God sent his Son into the world: the man Jesus Christ. (Draw crown, draw world, write "J") Jesus perfectly lived under God's rule. (Draw a man without hands under the crown) Yet by dying in our place he took our punishment. (Draw horizontal line over man to represent cross)	Christ died for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God. 1 Peter chapter 3, verse 18 But that's not all...
	God raised Jesus to life again as the ruler and judge of the world. (Draw Crown with J, draw world) Jesus has conquered death, now brings forgiveness and new life, and will return to judge.	In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. 1 Peter chapter 1, verse 3 Well, where does that leave us? It leaves us with a clear choice between two ways to live.
	A: Our way: • Reject God as ruler • Live our own way Result: • Condemned by God • Facing death and judgment B: God's new way: • Submit to Jesus as our ruler • Rely on Jesus' death and resurrection Result: • Forgiven by God • Given eternal life	Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life, but whoever rejects the Son will not see life, for God's wrath remains on him. John chapter 3, verse 36 So, which way do you want to live?
